

Fire Victim

MACKINNON'S CONDITION CRITICAL

Peter F MacKinnon, 67 years old, of 7 Carter Lane is in a critical condition in St Johns Hospital, in Lowell, after being burned in a fire in his home, Monday evening.

MacKinnon was hauled unconscious from his home by a neighbor, Robert W Cheney, and rushed to the hospital in the record time of twelve minutes, with Privates Kevin Field and Kevin Kidder of the Wilmington Fire Department in charge of the ambulance, and the way being cleared for the ambulance by the Tewksbury and Lowell Police Departments.

The fire which raged in the MacKinnon home on Monday evening probably started from a flooded oil burner in the living room space heater, according to Lieut. George Cushing of the Wilmington Fire Department.

It was first seen by Mr Cheney who lives nearby on Norfolk Ave when he returned home from work at 5:45 pm. He called to Mrs Cheney, when he saw smoke coming from the MacKinnon home, and had her call the Fire Department, while he rushed to the burning building, and found MacKinnon on the kitchen floor, badly burned and unconscious. The fire had not yet reached the kitchen, leading to the conclusion that MacKinnon, who is a retired leather worker, had been burned while in the livingroom, and had tried to get out of his home.

The firemen fought the blaze until 8:05 pm, assisted by a fire truck from the Tewksbury Fire Department, while a Reading truck stood by in the Fire Station.

MacKinnon was badly burned about the head, chest and hands, and his condition is further complicated by a bad heart condition. He lived alone in his home.

GROUND BREAKING FOR AMBRIT: Took place recently, in North Wilmington, off Andover Street.

Wielding the shovel is Walter Gaudion, president of the firm, which he founded five years ago in Medford. At left is Carmen Grasso, Director, and to the right is Arthur Marson, Treasurer.

Well, folks. Again you've done it. I want to thank all of you that have donated the paperbacks for the boys in the service. Still need some games and cards etc so don't forget to drop yours off at the Depot for the February 15 shipment. These are all for the boys on the Sanctuary, the Hospital Ship out off the coast of Viet Nam. Some kids stuff would be welcome too, since they have a ward of Vietnamese Children out there.

Nancy Sullivan has asked me to extend her heartfelt thanks to all of you who helped to make the Wrentham State School Christmas such a success. Troop 361 of the Girl Scouts donated generously and there were 8 boy scouts who left gifts nicely wrapped at the Wilmington Center Pharmacy. The gals that collected at the schools are surely thanked, as is the wonderful Christmas Gremlin and the wrappers, Barbara Farrell, Betty Rice and Dora Cornish, who gave unlimited time to wrapping and decorating.

A letter arrived from Frank A. Noyes Director of Nursing at the School to Nancy Sullivan:

'Dear Mrs. Sullivan: Our blessings to you for your spearheading the Christmas Drive that assisted to make Christmas at Wrentham complete. Your enthusiasm was only exceeded by the number of beautiful toys you sent to our girls and boys. Nursery I is rocking with the new record player.

'I'm sure many hours were spent wrapping and tagging each gift. If you could have seen the joy the smiles and the 'Oh's' when the gifts were received, your reward would have far exceeded your efforts.

'Please thank your friends for their generous contribution and our extreme appreciation for being a friend of Wrentham.

'Bless you one and all.
'Cordially yours, Frank A. Noyes.'

The news is that the Craiks on Burlington Avenue have all kinds of laces for skates and she wanted me to see who needed them. May be she should get a hold of Barbara Dayton on Burlington Ave who has the skate exchange.

week. See if you all can guess who he is:

'Dear Nancy: I hope you don't mind, but I want to find out if you can solve this little mystery on who I am.

'I will let you use your column and enlist the help of your readers.

'I don't get the Town Crier here (yet) so I son't know how you are making out, so I'll have to get some one to send it to me. I read your column every chance I get home. I even read the back copies.

'For one, a woman can't answer back. All you can do is listen. Hal

'I was just thinking that it should be pretty nice at home and I thought of you and your paper. So I thought just for fun, if you could really find out just who I am. I think that you might take a while, but I think you may not find out for at least, say, five weeks.

'I'll even bet you a lunch that you can't find out who I am by the time I come home on a visit.

'I should come home by the time an animal comes up.

'I'll write every week and give you news and hints as to who I am.

'Well, the weather is fine here and the sun sure is warm. The base is at the foot of a mountain range and when the sun strikes them it's sure something.

'They have a replica of Fort Bliss that I will send next week.

'Rules: You cannot enlist the help of any person that works and gets paid by the town. 2. I like hamburgers for lunch.

'Well, bye for now. Who Am I?'

(Dear Groundhog: Think that I just might have a line on who you may be. However, I shall wait until Fort Bliss arrives to even commence to guess. What do you say fells? Got any ideas?)

Dick Weimer of 34 Burlington Avenue is home on a thirty-day leave. He arrived two days after Christmas and will be stationed in this country now in Quantico, Virginia. Needless to say, Dick's a Marine.

By the way, you fellas way out there, how about post cards, if any of you can get your hands on such an article. One of the boys sent me one this week, and it looks great on that bulletin board. You would really be surprised about the number of townsfolk that come in to look at that board and also your buddies that are home on leave! Let's keep em rolling, there boys. We need you as much as you need us.

The response to the appeal for the Sanctuary has been wonderful. Have quite a few paperbacks and toys. Now, we need some cards for playing that is, and games for the large-type boys to play with. Keep up the good work, folks. February 15th is the promised deadline.

Speaking of February, notice that the Captain is running the list of Servicemen with the changes in addresses this week again. It occurred to me that you might send all of them valentines, which they should get a kick out of. If the kids at school want to make them I'll see that those get mailed. How about that. They appreciated your Christmas Cards beyond any phase of the imagination, and now is the chance for all of those who told me that they wished they had sent some!

Selectmen's Meeting

The proposal Monday night of Robert Connors of Lawrence Street to erect a gas station on Lowell St., opposite Avco, was one of the best attended functions which the Board of Selectmen have held in several weeks. There were about fifty people present, mostly friends attesting to Bob's high integrity in business.

Connors was represented by Atty Phillip Buzzell, who presented a very complete case. Mr Buzzell told the Selectmen that the building was being proposed to be 62 feet from the street, to allow for future Chapter 90 development of Lowell Street.

Lloyd Call, an abuttor, objected on the grounds that there was already an ice cream plant, and Avco, in the neighborhood, and that the monoxide would interfere with his living if a gas station were added. Reginald Mumley, an abuttor also, objected on the same grounds.

Speaking in favor were Joe La Creta, owner of the nearby delicatessen building and Wilson Belbin, who stated that the Odd Fellows Lodge had not objected a year ago, at another hearing, and still had the same mind. Tom McNamara of Lawrence Street, and Jack Powers and Tom Croke spoke in favor, and Albert Parsons told the Selectmen he thought the town should have a gas station with an owner resident. Alan Fenton also spoke for the station.

Mrs Barbara Hooper, formerly of Strout Avenue, asked Mr Connors why he had given up the Sunoco Station in town. Connors said it was a matter of economics, and that it would only pay him to run his own station. Mr and Mrs Hooper were recorded as against the station.

Buzzell told the Selectmen that there were a few factors in the location that were different from a year ago.

The prospective Chapter 90 Road Work, Buzzell said, was of importance. It was difficult to find a place with a lack of interference, and yet as convenient as the one proposed. The owner would operate, and he was a resident of Wilmington. There had been an increase in the number of cars registered in town.

Buzzell said that the main competitors of the company (Esso) had two stations each, in Wilmington, and that Esso should be given that privilege.

The proposed site, he said, was highly suitable, a good lot of land, with ample frontage and set back, and with zoning back to 400 feet. The abuttors did not have a legitimate complaint, he told the Selectmen, since the zoning was such it was his opinion that we live under a free enterprise, and that a man should be entitled to the opportunity to work at what he wished. 'Give them all a fair shake, and may the best man win!'

Weyman Billings, speaking against the proposal, said that there was 'No need for Wilmington to be Gasoline Alley'. He was seconded by Russell Williams also of Strout Avenue, and Mrs Hooper said that her objection was that there were too many (gas stations) already, and they were too close together.

The board took the proposal under advisement, to be decided next week, and Chairman Miceli asked for signatures. There were twelve in favor and eleven against.

Other Business

William H. Turner of Hanson Road and Harold S Miller of 25 King Street were drawn for the jury pool for Cambridge on Mar 4, 1968 and Mrs Elsa Bishop of 30 Melrose Avenue for Civil Ct in Lowell on March 4.

Frances Downs appeared on behalf of Mrs Joseph McMahon stating that she wished to donate a flagpole to the town in memory of Joe, if the town was not going to do anything about a flagpole for the common. The Selectmen thanked Frances for appearing, but stated they felt that it was the Town's responsibility and would see that a flagpole was erected in the name of Mr McMahon and the Veterans of all Wars, since it was the Town's responsibility to do this. Niles stated that they appreciated Mrs McMahon's offer and suggested that a letter be sent to her explaining their decision.

Rep Fred Cain appeared with the new plans for the Shawshen Ave Bridge between Texaco and Wilmington Sales off Main Street a cross from the Shopping Center. He told the Selectmen that they already had $100,000 in the County Account for Bridges and could have $50,000 this year, but after that, something else would happen to it. He stated that the state would erect the bridge on roads with Federal monies, but that the Town must match the county and use this $300,000 for the land taking. The Board questioned the ability to take the land for $300,000 Cain said that it could be done another way and take eight feet from each side of the street, but it had to be done now and this was the only place they could get the 'span' needed. instructed the TM to have Anthony Krzymynski, the principal assessor, estimate the damages and Cain added that a state appraiser and estimator would be here too.

A letter from R. B. Sonya of the Diamond Crystal Salt Co. to the Fire Chief, Arthur Boudreau, thanked the Fire Department and Lt. George Cushing for its prompt action, in a fire at the plant recently, stated that this made them confident that they had located in the right town. A letter of commendation was sent to Lt Cushing.

A letter from Senator W. D. Weeks stated that he was very happy with the medical questionaire that he had sent to the Town and that the question had been now legalized for study by being signed into a law on January 2, 1968. Walter Coleman, of the Welfare Department was complimented by the Board for his work and recommendations.

The Board did not sign the deed for Corasco, on Adams Street, as his first name was inserted incorrectly.

Renewal licenses were voted for Scotty's, Wilmington Plaza Drug, and No. Wilmington Pharmacy with the usual restrictions.

Miceli said the contractor for Alderwood Estates had never asked for a Hatch Act Hearing, and that the Planning Board wanted the Board's opinion.

A letter of sympathy was sent to the family of Lester Smith.

There was an application from Charles Kelley for keeping two ponies at 9 Clark Terrace. The TM said this did not conform to the zoning requirements, since there was 2 - 1/2 acres per horse needed. Referred to the Building Inspector.

The Attorney General has signed the Dog Leash Law, approving it.

New Business

Niles complimented the TM on the outstanding job he had done on the budget. Boylen inquired about how the tax rate could be estimated without the cherry sheet. The TM said it couldn't be, this was merely a conjecture. Miceli stressed the fact that the TM had never given the Town Crier an estimated Tax Rate.

Boylen stated that we must have one before the Town Meeting. And Miceli stated that no one had criticized the TM for not having the budget complete. They still did not have the breakdown for the School Committee and that the TM and the Selectmen had the best relationship they had ever had for five years or more.

Miceli said that on inquiry from Boylen, the TM said that the Town employees had agreed to bargain earlier next year with a cutoff date of Nov 26. The classification letter for the budget were questioned by Niles, for the capital improvement program, and the TM explained: A, urgent not to be postponed; B, Necessary, with in a few years; C, desirable for proper expansion; D, Deferrable, necessary for ideal operation.

Niles questioned the Police Budget and three recommendations were ok'd by selectmen; added pay for canine officers; pay over time for long hours; incentive program for degree in police administration.

Niles brought up replacement of the pumper for the Fire Department and Black said it just had been rebuilt two years ago. Miceli said Black had a good point, who had tested it for the Insurance Underwriters? Just for assurance, it was decided to have the Lawrence Fire Department check it.

Niles asked about $12000 added to Engineering Account. The TM said that was for his request for a man full time in addition to the two co-op students.

NILES STATEMENT (Fr. Front Pg.)

Board of Selectmen, since I am a candidate for this office.

My principal reason for seeking re-election is to assist in completing the work in which I have been involved during the past three years. These efforts have been a co-operative venture with other town officials and many of our concerned citizens. Progress often seems slow at times, but when an important goal is achieved, the satisfaction is rewarding, and makes the effort worthwhile. With your help I would like to continue in resolving such problems as the need for improved street lighting, for expanded recreational facilities, and for stabilization of the tax burden imposed on home owners.

It is essential that Wilmington maintain the positive standards that will ensure attractive high quality industrial developments in appropriately zoned locations, to provide an expanding tax income that can pay for needed improvements in public services and our schools.

Inevitably Wilmington will continue to grow and will encounter problems resulting from such growth. I believe that I can contribute to the effective solution of these problems, because of my professional background, and my training, as well as nearly ten years experience in town affairs.

the March elections.

A resident of Wilmington for the past four years, Mrs Wolff is a graduate of Sarah Lawrence College, with a liberal arts degree, and has done graduate work at Tufts College.

Mrs Wolff has worked with a home for physically and emotionally handicapped children, and has made extensive studies of the implication of the Willis-Harrington Report, in Massachusetts.

She has, from time to time, written articles about the Wilmington schools, for the Town Crier of Wilmington.

SELECTMEN (Fr. Pg. 5)

for May and June of 1968, and with the increased cost of Welfare program, this meant $1.50 on the tax rate. He had been already notified of this.

The TM also reported he had a request for Betterments Sudbury Avenue. Too late for this year, filed for next.

The warrant articles were discussed next: Grader for the Highway Department $29,000; Carryall for Engineering Department; Personnel and Job Evaluation for Town Employees; 3 vehicles for Police Department; Extension of present fire alarm system $3500; Mutual aid based radio with surrounding towns; 3 dump trucks for Highway Department $6000 each; Stump cutter for Tree Department, $2400 to own instead of lease; 6 inch water main into Wildwood Cemetery; 3/4 and 1-1/2 ton trucks for building department; salaries; amendment of by-laws by Planning Board; reserve for Planning Board for taking of 4 lots in Hathaway Acres at $4000 each for play area; amending setback in industrial areas to 200 feet; betterments for streets; rezoning to industrial on Concord Street; water layout betterments; amend by-law for pools over one foot deep requiring fences; walls of private garages attached to house, one hour fire resistance. Building Permits raised to $1 per $1000 with a minimum five dollars; advisory Board to Building Inspector eliminated. Transfer parcels adjacent to Town Park to Conservation Commission; $15000 for police station addition; loitering by-law; grantee notify assessors when selling property new school; employees salaries and budget.

Niles ended meeting with the comment there were private articles except Caterino's for zoning on Concord Street.

provide technical services, to provide a detailed interpretive soil report of the Town of Wilmington, and will further provide interpretive line maps for septic tank sewage disposal; commercial and industrial sites with communal sewer systems; home sites; wetland wildlife sites; roads, surface runoffs; depth of waters to seasonal high water table; land slope characteristics; and for installation of water and sewer pipelines.

The agreement calls for the work to be completed and in the possession of the town by June 30 1969, but it may be supplemented or extended by mutual consent.

Part of the agreement states that all information gained by the town from the service is to be public property, and that the information cannot be sold, bartered, or otherwise used to make a profit.

After reading the agreement Chairman Gillis commented 'At last some of our leg work is beginning to pay off!'

Daly Farm

The two members spent an hour with Atty James Fallon of Concord going over 'Land Court' maps of the Daly Farm, in North Wilmington.

Last week the Planning Board refused to sign the latest Land Court Plan of the property, because it showed a lot of land without frontage on an accepted way, i.e. it was fronting on Rt 125, which is 'restricted'. Mr Fallon was present to try to resolve the difficulty.

The problem was that the executors of the estate are attempting to join together two parcels, into one lot, and they have to observe the Land Court Rules, the laws of the Probate Court, and the Town of Wilmington's regulations at the same time, an almost impossible task.

After an hour of negotiating and talking, the board and Mr Fallon found a way to satisfy all three sets of requirements, and Mr Fallon left to put the plan into execution.

Other Business

The DiCenso Brothers have requested a release of a bankbook, with $11,000, after having completed a stated portion of the construction of Industrial Way, through the Route 93 Industrial Park, in South Wilmington. Town Engineer Arthur Harding was unable to say that all the required work had been completed, but he knew that some had been done, because in the aerial photos taken on December 5th he could see a paving machine, on the road, at work. He will check it out, and the board is to authorize him to release the bank book, if the work has been completed.

Gillis commented, on the photos 'It's worth the $3000 they cost, already'. The Town Engineer will receive the negatives of the photos on a 1 to 100 scale, shortly, and from the negatives he will be able to make photos of any part of town, as needed.

Arthur Fosse, Civil Engineer with the firm of Dana Perkins and Sons, was present to discuss the plans for Benson Park, proposed sub-division off Lake Street.

Fosse told the Board that the only thing missing, in the present approach, forty foot wide to Benson Park, that would be in a fifty foot wide street, are the two grass strips, each four feet wide. The traveled way will be the same he said, and there will be sidewalks.

It will be impossible, he pointed out, to widen the street, and it will also be impossible to enter the backlands by any other route.

Fosse agreed to provide a plan for a fifty foot wide easement from the proposed road through the swamp in back, to the end of New Hampshire Road, a 'paper' street off Nichols Street. The board is insisting on the easement in case the town should ever decide to connect Lake Street and Nichols Street at some time in the future.

The Board decided to hold the Planning Board hearings, on the articles for the Annual Town Meeting warrant, in the High School, at 8 pm on February 20th.

Wilmington's Newest Church Is Dedicated

THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

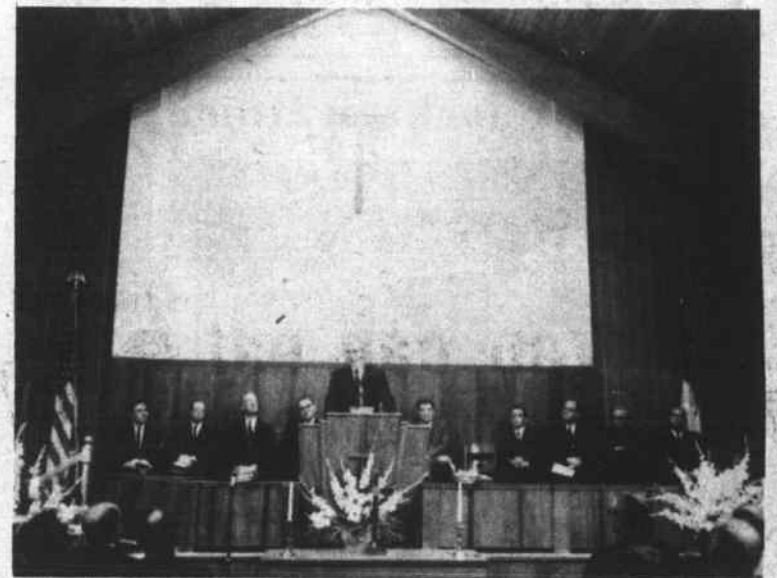

LOOKING TOWARDS THE REAR OF THE CHURCH: During the services, and showing some of the 290 members of the congregation and their friends who were present. The ushers are in the rear, just after having collected the offering.

DR PAUL STURGIS: President of the Massachusetts Council of Churches, and Administrative Executive of the Massachusetts Baptist Convention, delivers the sermon 'Dare We Dedicate'.

WITH VOICES UPLIFTED: The clergymen join in a hymn.

THE REV. ROBERT C. SMITH: Leads the Responsive Readings during the Dedication Ceremony.

THE CHOIR: Not all of the choir could be shown in the picture.

GREETINGS TO THE NEW CHURCH WERE EXTENDED BY

Mr. Ernest Hatch of Lynnfield, representing the Judson Association; Sterling Morris, Town Manager of Wilmington; James R. Miceli, Chairman of the Board of Selectmen of Wilmington; The Rev. Willis Miller of the Wilmington Methodist Church; The Rev. Fr. Edmund C. Croke of St. Thomas; The Rev. H. Allen Tadgell Jr. of the Congregational Church and Mr. William Burns of the Wilmington Council of Churches.

In addition to their greetings Sterling Morris and Father Croke had special words of praise for the Pastor of the Baptist Church, the Rev. Robert C. Smith.

Mr. Morris spoke of his work as Secretary of the Rotary Club of Wilmington, where the motto is 'Service Above Self' and said that the Rev. Mr. Smith is an example of that motto.

Fr. Croke told of a priest who had been Chaplain in a prison, and after his death one of the prisoners spoke up to say 'He must have known Jesus'. Like that priest, Fr. Croke declared, the same thing can be said of the Rev. Robert Smith.

Writer's cramp, a spasm in the muscles of the hand and arm of young people who do a great deal of writing, has long been attributed to a psychiatric problem. The theory is that the writers are emotionally two-sided - having a feeling of both love and hate for their work.

In writer's cramp, also known as scrivner's palsy, patients are usually able to start writing but soon the first two fingers begin pinching the pencil firmly and then the others become stiff.

Persistent attempts at continued writing increases the cramp.

There are many ailments requiring only relaxation to cure them. For those ailments that require filling a prescription, come to Silver Lake Pharmacy. Open every day 9 - 10. Greeting cards, cosmetics, candy.

Town Crier
Middlesex Avenue
Wilmington, Mass.
Attn: Editor
Mr. Editor:

Your recent article concerning my appointment to the WHA turns out to be as expected, another of your persistent attempts to justify this mess in Alderwood Estates.

Your newest attempt, unfortunately, sums up the state of affairs in this area, and that is if we all pretend we don't see it, the conditions will somehow by some Wilmington magic disappear. Not a chance; it will get worse.

To suggest that the conditions could be improved by private arrangements with the builders is absurd.

To begin with, how do you make private arrangements to correct conditions that are not supposed to exist or at least the builder, yourself, and some of the Town Officials pretend they don't exist.

You come down to this area, and you see it. You hear it discussed at the meetings, but when you write your story, it comes out vindictive residents, troublemakers, and no justification for the complaints.

We residents in Alderwood Estates remember that you saw a house being built in three feet of water and your story came out the same way; no justification. If we could wave copies of your paper to this mess and have it go away, we would. But when the flooding starts again, and it already has, no private arrangements are going to stop it; - nothing but proper drainage. When the septic tanks overflow again they will infect this whole area irrespective of individual private arrangements. Those septic tanks are unable to recognize private arrangements.

Yes, many of us are sick of hearing of private mutually satisfactory arrangements, between individuals and the builder. These are not solutions. But, instead, the main reason why the conditions are allowed to exist.

It is true that I and my neighbors made it our business to attend as many meetings as we could. It is too bad that you and the builders didn't try to find out why we attended instead of making it your business, to find out who attended the meetings.

The sign in front of my house says 'Help stop the Flooding in Alderwood Estates - inquire within' Many people are doing just that.

You suggest that some of my neighbors don't like the sign. Perhaps this is true-I have only heard from the ones that like it.

The prevailing opinion is of no consequence to me. I am not going around pretending this mess never happened, and many of the residents feel the same way.

My opinion about new construction in this area is this; don't build any messes until this is corrected, and just possibly the Town of Wilmington will learn something about building.

Sincerely,
Walter J McNamara

Reader McNamara is one of the group which spent some months tilting at windmills, at the meetings of the Planning Board. They made a number of charges which the Planning Board investigated and found to be untrue, in every case. The Town Crier tried to be gentle with the group, and deliberately failed to identify them when the Planning Board after investigation had shown the charges to be untrue.

There is a problem. The way to solve the problem is to tackle the man who sold the houses. Make an agreement with him to settle the questions, or, failing this (1) take the case to court and settle it there, or (2) forget it. Ed.

Legion Oratorical Contest

Post Commander Ralph M. Zwicker, Jr. is inviting the high school students of Wilmington on behalf of Post 136 of the American Legion to compete in the 31st Annual National High School Oratorical Contest.

The subject must be on some phase of the Constitution of the United States, emphasizing the duties and obligations of a citizen to the national government. The prepared oration must be the original effort of each contestant, and must not require less than 8 nor more than 10 minutes in delivery.

The Wilmington Post would like to hold a local contest among Wilmington Students prior to the County Contest on February 18th.

If we have more than four students in the competition, we will present the winner with a $25.00 Savings Bond, and that student will represent Post 136 in the County Contest. All other students may still enter the County Contest.

By participating, our local students will gain a deeper understanding of our nation's Constitution. At the same time, they will have the opportunity of winning both national recognition and university scholarships worth $4000, $2500, $1000, and $500, which are awarded during the elimination rounds prior to the national contest which this year will be held on April 11th, at St Paul, Minn.

The American Legion will pay expenses of the state winners as they progress in the national competition.

High School Students in Wilmington who are interested in entering the 1968 competition will find the complete rules and contest information at the high school office or may contact commander Ralph M. Zwicker, Jr.

LIKE THE EXTRA DASH OF SEASONING, SMALL TEMPERATURE ADJUSTMENTS MAKE A BIG DIFFERENCE

WHEN YOU USE GLASS DISHES FOR BAKING, RESULTS WILL BE BETTER IF THE RECOMMENDED OVEN TEMPERATURE IS ADJUSTED DOWN ABOUT 25 DEGREES F. THIS PREVENTS SIDES AND BOTTOM OF FOOD FROM OVERBROWNING BEFORE THE TOP IS DONE.

SET YOUR BAKING OVEN AT A LOW TEMPERATURE (ABOUT 170 DEGREES F.) AND USE IT TO DEFROST FROZEN MEATS. THAWING TIME IS REDUCED TO A FRACTION OF THAT NORMALLY REQUIRED FOR THAWING AT ROOM TEMPERATURE

How Many Wilmington Men Are In The Armed Forces?

How many men (or women, if there are any) from Wilmington are serving their country today, in the Armed Forces of the United States?

A month ago the Town Crier counted 167 names of people in the Armed Forces, but the list was still incomplete. One name that was omitted for the lack of an address, for instance, was Robert Peters, who has an address that is in the 'classified' list.

If the Town Crier has overlooked any name, in this list (other than Peters) the reader is invited to use the coupon below, to help complete the list.

MARCH OF DIMES WEEK IN WILMINGTON

Mrs Irene Beaton of 16 King Street has announced that this year is the 30th Anniversary of the March of Dimes, of which she is the Chairman.

There is no other Health Organization that can look back on such medical accomplishments.

However this is not the time to look back, there is still much to be done.

If we are to wipe out the unnecessary birth defects that afflict thousands of infants each year we must keep on fighting.

This is the week that we can all make a special effort.

Mothers and helpers will be marching all of this week, your contributions will be gratefully appreciated.

Volunteers are urgently needed and we welcome your assistance. Sunday is the final day of the March.

All contributions are to be returned to Mrs Peg Page who is the Treasurer of the March for Wilmington at the Branch Office of the Reading Savings Bank in Wilmington Center.

The Branch office will be open in Wilmington Center from two to five on Sunday Afternoon to receive your collections.
